

U.S. Dairy Industry; Producers, Processors, Retailers, Consumers

Red lines represent the flow of milk from the farm through marketing agencies and to processing plants.

Green lines represent the movement of money back to the producer.

Purple lines represent producers' money to DPA who purchases from processors which return back to producer by adding value to your product.